Feel

I was introduced to Radley Green by one of our investors when I was hiring for our first Finance Director and we subsequently worked with them on other roles. Radley Green has always provided us with great candidates and I would highly recommend them as a Finance agency of choice.

I K A W A

I have worked a few times with Radley Green and highly recommend them. I have 2 jobs and in the first (G3) Radley Green successfully and efficiently found us a fantastic Head of Finance under a tight deadline, and in the second (IKAWA) they successfully found us a new Managing Director also under a tight deadline. They were a pleasure to work with, always available, pragmatic and offered sensible commercial advice. I did not feel they were pushing us in either case for the fee, but totally focused on us getting the outcome we needed. I would strongly recommend Radley Green for your recruitment needs.

I have used Radley Green for both permanent and interim roles, and they have always provided top class candidates. I was struggling to fill a number of roles and through engaging with Radley Green interviewed a number of quality candidates, and I managed to fill the roles successfully. The candidates have gone on to become some top performing team members. The team at Radley Green took the time to understand the role and our company, making sure the candidates they put forward were a good fit and well informed about the requirements of the role. They managed the process very well from start to finish – with great communication along the way. I would highly recommend them, and they continue to be my go to agency for roles within my team

We recently worked with Radley Green to fill the critical position of Head of Finance within our organization. The process of finding the right candidate for this role was both location-sensitive and highly specialized, and Radley Green exceeded our expectations at every step – their unparalleled network of finance professionals were invaluable assets in our search. They demonstrated a commitment to excellence and a dedication to our unique needs. The candidates presented to us were of the highest quality, and the thoroughness of the vetting process ensured that we were considering individuals who were not only qualified but also aligned with our values. This precision significantly expedited our recruitment process and saved us considerable time and resources.

The Radley Green team has been fantastic to work with on our finance roles. They are so professional, knowledgeable and really take the time to understand what the business needs and how we work, and they work in a transparent and honest way which is very refreshing. I'd highly recommend working with them for finance recruitment.

KANTAR MEDIA

The team at Radley Green have supported Finance hiring at all levels and contract types for Kantar Group and Kantar Media during my 6 year tenure as UK&I TA Leader & Global Head of TA (respectively).

I knew their meticulous approach at briefing, appreciation and connections within the candidate market, and ability to sell the intricacies of our business to prospective employees would be a huge benefit to Kantar, as historically our suppliers had not always taken the time to appreciate us, nor the candidate, prior to determining a 'fit'. The less is more approach has always pleased my stakeholders who were used to a bombardment of CV's, and Radley Green would genuinely take on advice from us if things were not quite right with the profiles sent (or we pivoted on our requirement halfway through a hiring process!).

Flexibility, understanding, and an experienced recruiter who cares more about long term relationships with both client and candidates, is rare to come across in today's short term success Recruitment Consultancy world.

I fully recommend the Radley Green team to anyone looking to find the right fit, not just the right skills.

I've used Radley Green's services for more than 6 years whilst working in the talent functions for WeWork and Kantar. The service has always been 1st class, providing me with the very best finance candidates on the market.

Very easy to deal with and makes a real effort to understand our business, candidates are always well prepared when we interview them. I couldn't recommend them enough and look forward to using their service again soon.
